Wilson Sentenced To Dannemora, Ticefelt Gets 6 Months In Jail

Floods Guilty To Abduction and Is Sentenced To Clinton State Prison—Clayton Ticefelt Pleads Guilty To Petit Larceny—Annual Session of County Court.

A rather unusual session of the county court was held this morning before County Judge Frederick G. Traver.

When court convened District Attorney Cleon B. Murray moved the trial of the indictment charging Horatio Cecil Wilson with abduction. Palmer Canfield, who had been assigned to defend Wilson, was present and Judge Traver directed the drawing of a jury. One juror was drawn and examined and challenged by the district attorney when the juror said he would find the defendant "not guilty" if the people proved the defendant "guilty to his satisfaction beyond a reasonable doubt."

A second juror was drawn and the examination had proceeded for a few moments when Mr. Wilson and Mr. Canfield engaged in a conference and after the conference ended Wilson entered a plea of guilty to the crime charged. He was indicted on a charge of abduction for the taking of one Ada Mae Burleigh, aged 16 years from her home, last June 22. The two went for a bus ride and when the girl's absence was noted by her parents they called in officers and as a result the couple were apprehended at Southfields and returned.

In asking for leniency for his client Mr. Canfield said that Wilson had been employed at the Burleigh home for over 10 months and that on the day in question they had gone for a bus ride but had intended to return that evening. However the absence of the girl was observed within an hour and a half and the arrest of Wilson followed. The girl had not been harmed in any way he said, and the charge of abduction was a "technical" one rather than a serious one. Prior to the case going to trial Mr. Canfield asked leave of the court for time to question the parents of the girl in an effort to adjust the matter by marriage, he said Wilson was willing to marry the child. However his efforts to reach such an agreement with the parents did not materialize.

Wilson was sentenced to Clinton State Prison at Dannemora for an indeterminate term of 1 year and 3 months to 4 years.

Mr. Canfield Didn't Withdraw

During the Wilson case activities at one of the numerous cessations of hostilities Mr. Canfield, who also appeared in the matter of The People vs. George Atkins and Carlson Codding, stated to Judge Traver that he desired to withdraw as counsel because one of the boys told him that Corporal Baker of the State Troopers had told the defendants "that they had the wrong lawyer." Judge Traver asked that Corporal Baker come into court.

Corporal Baker came in court and Judge Traver asked him about the story which Mr. Canfield had just told. The court asked Corporal Baker if he had told the defendants such a thing. Trooper Baker replied, "It is a lie and I told Mr. Canfield so this morning." Mr. Canfield did not withdraw.

Ticefelt Sentenced.

Then came Clayton Ticefelt, who was indicted for grand larceny. Nicholas J. Fowler, who appeared for Ticefelt, said that his client desired to plead guilty to petit larceny. District Attorney Murray stated that the sum involved in the case was $6 and the lesser plea was acceptable. Ticefelt was accused of inviting a Mr. Tremper man to go for a ride in his car and then removing his cash. Ticefelt waived the usual two days' time and was sentenced immediately to six months in the county jail. In answer to the usual questions he said he had been before the city court before.

Case of Gerald Sauer

A short recess was taken in order to allow time for Attorney Lloyd R. LeFever to arrive in court. When court convened again the Gerald Sauer case was moved. Mr. LeFever said he had made a partial investigation of the case and desired more time to prepare for trial. The charge was a serious one, and he said the punishment if convicted of the crime was too extreme for the case. He said that he had been "misled" in the case. He had talked to the district attorney, assistant district attorney and the court and he thought an agreement had been reached but he found now that the agreement had not been reached. Mr. Murray took objection to the statement that the district attorney's office had "misled" anyone in the case and asked as to what particular counsel had been misled. Mr. LeFever said there had been negotiations in the case and he thought until today that an agreement had been reached in the matter.

However the court directed that the case go on and a recess was taken until 2 o'clock at which time a jury was scheduled to be taken.

Sauer is the lad who took a car of Gloucester county, said he planned downtown and when apprehended by a police officer who jumped on the running board of the car, swerved his car and threw the officer off and continued on. He was later arrested after abandoning the car.

Five Miners Died.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 22 (AP).—Five men were buried in a cave of rock and coal while digging fuel in South Scranton today. Two were rescued but three remained trapped.

Wonderly's to Move Into Own Building And Expend $20,000

Clyde E. Wonderly, president of The Wonderly Co., Inc., 315 Wall street, announces that within a few weeks the Wonderly Co. will begin building operations that will mean the expenditure of between eighteen and twenty thousand dollars in Kingston.

Final specifications are now being drawn by Architect George Lowe for changes and additions to the building at 314 Wall street, directly across from the Wonderly Co.'s present location, purchased by Mr. Wonderly from the Pitts estate about two years ago. The Wonderly Co. will move their store to the new location and expect to be completely installed there by April 1.

Present plans provide for the letting of contracts for the new work in about two weeks and the starting of outside construction at the rear of the interior will begin after January 1, at which time the lease to the present occupant expires.

The first work undertaken will be the raising of the rear portion of the brick building at 314 Wall street, now but one story in height, to three full stories. Later operations will include the installation of all modern improvements, among which will be an elevator, pneumatic tube cash carriers, heating system and sprinkler system for protection in case of fire.

The new store will have a slightly smaller main floor than the present one, but with the same floor space on the second and third floors and will allow the arrangement and placing of all merchandise without crowding.

There will be no change in policy on the part of the Wonderly Co. and the store will continue to carry the same lines of strictly high-grade merchandise that have given it an enviable reputation for the past 57 years.

Originally doing business under the name of Benson, Hart & Hubbard, then Benson & Hart and for many years as G. A. Hart & Co., the store has since 1920 been conducted by the Wonderly Co., C. E. Wonderly, for several years manager for G. A. Hart & Co., associating himself with the late Herbert Carl and taking over the business. The present store building at 315 Wall street is still owned by the Carl estate.

President Going On With Dollar Value Despite Opposition

Issue in Hands of Acting Treasury Chief During Roosevelt's Vacation Trip—Considered Reply to Sprague Resignation, in Official Circles.

Warm Springs, Ga., Nov. 22 (AP).—President Roosevelt is going ahead with his dollar revaluation program and is leaving the issue with Acting Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury while he goes on with his vacation.

This is accepted here as the President's answer to the resignation of O. M. W. Sprague, former adviser to the Bank of England, as special adviser to the treasury. Sprague proposed an organized movement against the administration monetary program.

If the published letter of Sprague protesting against the gold control plan and the failure to consult him caused the President any concern here it was not evident. Stephen T. Early, a secretary to the President, replied in response to inquiry that the Sprague action would have no effect on the administration monetary program. Sprague has not been in the President's monetary conferences since the London Economic Conference.

Last Saturday the President referred to the critics of his money plan as "modern Tories" and "doubtful Thomases."

He will speak over the air today and again Friday but there is no indication that he is going to discuss his gold control program.

Interest is evident here in the treasury in the protest of the newspapermen over the ruling of Acting Secretary Morgenthau requiring that all information in that department be given out at one source.

Early, who is in charge of government press relations insists that this is not meant for censorship or for a "gag," but rather for accuracy. He is returning to Washington today in accordance with previous plans and Mr. Morgenthau to reach an understanding about press relations at the treasury.

"I know the intention of Mr. Morgenthau is not to censor news," said Early. "If the newspapermen at the treasury will wait and see how things work out I think they will be entirely satisfied. It is the intention to put all news at a central point, as is done in the other government departments."

Respectfully yours,
EUGENE B. CAREY, Mayor.

Two Treated Following Accident Early Today

Closed Truck Struck Tree Near Accident in Early Morning Mishap—Sergeant Hopkins Investigating.

Emmett Robbins of 119 Maple avenue, Hackettstown, N. J., and Anthony Albanito of 222 Park avenue, same city, were taken to the Veterans' Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, about one o'clock this morning, where they are being treated for severe cuts and bruises, mostly about the face.

The men were injured when the closed delivery truck in which they were riding left the road just above the Anderson garage on Route 279 at Accord. The truck plunged into a large tree, the engine being driven back by the force of the blow, turned onto its side in the ditch and caught fire. The accident happened shortly after midnight.

Two men, apparently Italians, were busy removing the contents of the burned truck and placing them into another for removal, shortly before eight o'clock this morning. They were very threatening when questioned as to details of the affair and tore the New Jersey license plate from the rear of the truck to avoid having the number taken, say troopers.

Sergeant Hopkins of the state troopers made an investigation of the accident this morning which disclosed that the owner of the burned truck was P. Cappellio of 310 High street, Hackettstown, N. J.

Aldermen Form an Organization Here

Following the meeting of the Common Council Tuesday evening the aldermen met in the city clerk's office and formed the Kingston Aldermanic Association, patterned along the lines of the Ulster County Supervisors' Association. Alderman Joseph Epstein was elected president; Alderman Philip J. Doherty, vice president, and Alderman John J. Schwenk, secretary and treasurer.

Any former member of the Common Council is eligible to become a member of the new association, and the first regular meeting will be held at the next council meeting.

Boulevard Project Will Cost City an Additional $8,545

Mayor Carey Calls Council's Attention to Fact That City Must Build Retaining Wall—Contractor Not to Start Work Until Spring—Heiseiman Suggests Investigation Before City Spends Money.

That before the state road contractor would commence work on laying the concrete pavement on the Boulevard project the city must build a concrete retaining wall at an estimated cost of $8,545, was brought to the attention of the common council Tuesday evening in the following communication from Mayor Carey:

Office of the Mayor,
City of Kingston, New York,
November 21, 1933.
To The Honorable, The Common Council of the City of Kingston, N. Y.
Gentlemen:

On December 1, 1933, Temporary Emergency Work Relief, under which we have operated during the past two years, will be superseded by a Federal Civil Works Program, which means that henceforth all Temporary Emergency Relief Bureaus will cease to function and their work will be taken over by a local Civil Works Administration.

In order to give Mayor-elect Walker a free hand in any work program he wishes to set up and carry on during his administration, the members of the present Temporary Emergency Relief Bureau, each for himself, have handed me their resignations, effective as of November 29th, at which time the present work relief program, it is expected, will be completed.

Mr. Walker is now in a position to recommend to the New York office of the Federal Civil Works Administration the names of those he desires appointed to the local Civil Works Administration.

Respectfully yours,
EUGENE B. CAREY, Mayor.

No Work Until Spring.

Alderman Zucca said that he had been informed that the contractor did not intend to start pouring concrete on the project owing to the lateness of the season and that the project would not be started until next spring. He said that residents of the town of Rosendale were up in arms over the delay.

"Should be Investigated."

President Heiseiman said that before the city should start work on the concrete retaining wall there should be a thorough investigation. He had been informed, he said, that someone for the city had made a verbal contract with the contractor that the city would build the retaining wall.

Other matters taken up will be found elsewhere.

MAN KILLS BROTHER-IN-LAW THEN SWALLOWES POISON

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Max Henry Wurtzel, 53, an insurance broker, shot and killed his brother-in-law, Henry Madliss, while he slept in the Wurtzel apartment at 110 Riverside Drive today and then committed suicide by swallowing poison.

Mrs. Madliss, sister of the suicide and wife of the slain man, found both men dead.

Inspector Edward J. Lennon said that Madliss' continual dependence upon his brother-in-law and indifference to work as long as Wurtzel had money were responsible for the double tragedy.

Wurtzel, who the inspector said recently suffered losses of $200,000, left a note which read "Good-bye. I'm very sorry. Please see that I am buried from Riverside Memorial Chapel."

LOS ANGELES FOREST FIRE DANGERS LIVES AND PROPERTY

Los Angeles, Nov. 22 (AP).—County Fire Warden Spence Turner today informed his headquarters here a brush fire raging along a 2-mile front in a foothills residential district was out of control, and asked for more fire fighters.

Turner called from his field headquarters at La Crescenta. He expressed fear for the safety of at least two palatial estates in the Alta Canada section.

Preparations were made for the evacuation of the Hillcrest Sanatorium which is near the fire area. About 20 patients, most of them suffering from tuberculosis, are confined there.

Water Shortage Faces Great Meadow Prison

State Correction Department Suggests Immediate Action for Additional Reserve—General Report Offers Several Constructive Criticisms for Bettering Conditions.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 22 (AP).—Great Meadow Prison at Comstock is faced with a "dangerous" water shortage, the State Department of Correction said in a report today.

"The present reservoir (Dolph Pond) cannot supply sufficient water," said the report. "The warden stated the state has water rights in Spruce Pond, which is on a ridge above Dolph Pond, and that if two or three small dams were built additional water could be impounded and piped to Dolph Pond."

The commission criticized the fact that there is only one pipe line from the present reservoir.

The report also contained recommendations that more fencing be installed to protect the upper end of the prison grounds, that adequate laundry and bakery equipment be obtained, that roads on the prison grounds be constructed with a good base and that a light engine for shifting cars over a railroad spur be purchased.

The commission said that the spur leading from the main Delaware and Hudson railroad line is not strong enough to permit heavy engines of the railroad to pass over and said that "the cost of maintaining the road bed so that his engines could pass over it would in two years probably pay for a small engine required by the institution."

Mrs. Clark Is Under Double Guard Now

Paulsboro, N. J., Nov. 22 (AP).—Under double guard since authorities said she threatened suicide, Mrs. Audrey Smith Clark, former musical comedy dancer, faced a bed-side hearing today on a charge of slaying her wealthy young husband, Sheldon A. Clark, oil company executive and sportsman.

A warrant charging murder was served on her last night at a Woodbury hospital, 24 hours after her husband was shot to death in a tragic sequel to a bitter quarrel between them in their spacious home.

Lynwood Lord, acting prosecutor of Gloucester county, said he planned to have a magistrate go to the hospital today and formally arraign Mrs. Clark, under double police guard since she threatened to take her own life.

She is recovering from head injuries which police said were inflicted by her husband just before he was killed. Investigators said he broke a billiard cue over her head and that she followed him to the basement billiard room where the shooting occurred.

Chicago Police Faced With Baffling Mystery

Suicide Theory Rejected, Possible Solution Hangs on Assumption of Attempted Assault—Found in Office of Mother-in-Law, a Well-Known Physician.

Chicago, Nov. 22 (AP).—A baffling murder mystery in which the victim, a 23-year-old woman, was found shot to death on an operating table of a physician's private office faced police for solution today.

The body of the victim, Mrs. Rheta Wynkoop, was discovered last night by her mother-in-law, Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop, well known physician, in her offices in the basement of her West Monroe street home.

Aside from the fact that Mrs. Wynkoop was entirely stripped of her clothes police said they found no evidences of a struggle and admitted that they were at a loss for clues.

In fact, the killer had evidently taken pains to handle the body as carefully as possible as it was covered with a blanket that had been tucked in at the ends and the head, face down, rested on two small pillows.

Nearly by a revolver covered with a cloth, but police scoffed at the suggestion that Mrs. Wynkoop might have killed herself for she had been shot in the back just below the left shoulder. Three bullets had been fired from the weapon but her life had been taken with a single shot.

Police investigated the possibility also that Mrs. Wynkoop might have been the victim of an attempted assault by someone who surprised her in the office.

Revolt Still Stirs Throughout Cuba

Havana, Nov. 22 (AP).—New disorders in the interior developed last night and early today as rumors that the threatened revolution was near circulated in a tense and strife-weary capital.

Seven bombs exploded in Camaguey province during the night. One man was gravely wounded. Considerable property damage was reported.

Manzanillo port strikers, in an ugly mood, fired on vessels in the harbor, but there were no casualties.

Colonel Fulgencio Batista continued his extraordinary preparations for any emergency. Army planes went aloft early this morning. A guard of four soldiers and a sailor was stationed at the United States embassy. Soldiers remained at their posts around and on the roof of the palace.

Despite the preparatory activity, however, the capital was fairly quiet during the night—with only occasional scattered firing. No lights were permitted at the army and navy barracks.

Doris Duke, 21, Today Comes Into Fortune

Left $52,000,000 Tobacco and Water Power Fortune by Her Father, the Late James B. Duke—Isn't Even Making a Party.

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Doris Duke, who became today the wealthiest girl in the world, is spending her twenty-first birthday "just like any other day."

She isn't even having a party—this daughter of the late James B. Duke, who left her a $52,000,000 tobacco and water power fortune.

The fact that she now has control of her fortune probably will not be mentioned at the great stone house off Central Park where she was born.

This tableau typifies her birthday: Early in the afternoon a tall slender girl with gold-blond hair and blue eyes comes down the curved stair, through the lofty vestibule and tall iron-grated doors, and goes quietly to lunch with her mother.

She is spending her birthday in New York because the stone house—a formal square building with a balustrade—is her favorite home. Her tastes are simple. She likes conservative dresses, and doesn't care for jewels. Her clothes are beautiful, of course, and both she and her mother are thought beautiful.

Doris likes Europe because people aren't always seeking her out there. She is quite at home in Paris, where she has studied, and her governess, who has been with her for twelve years, is a French woman.

Her French is better than her English, her governess says. She also is an accomplished musician. Her first instrument was the harp, which she studied as a child, and she also plays the piano.

She swims "like a fish," rides and is proficient at winter sports. And she reads a great deal.

One of her interests, now that she is 21, will be Duke University, the institution at Durham, N. C., which her father endowed. Doris became a trustee of the school today.

Restless Atlantic Alone Holds Strange Secret of Young Widow

36-Year-Old Widow of Less Than a Year Flew Seaward With Four-Month Fuel Supply in Buried Plane—Notes, Explaining the Just Wanted to Go "Out Into Space." Found Too Late to Bail.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 21 (AP).—Restless waters of the broad Atlantic today apparently formed a grave for Mrs. Louise Turk Stanton, who borrowed a plane and flew seaward to meet death wherever the craft's fuel ran out. The 36-year-old Junior League had recently lost her husband in an automobile accident.

In notes left behind she asked that it not be called suicide—for "I particularly dislike the word suicide"—and explained she just wanted to go "out into space and find out what it's all about, and if there isn't anything—that's O. K., too."

It was hours after the few eastward in the borrowed plane with about enough gasoline to last four hours and take her some 350 miles to sea, that airport authorities found the notes and began a search. It was too late then. Then, too, in her notes she had begged them not to undertake a dangerous search which she said "wouldn't do any good."

To Bert Maloney, airport manager, she wrote: "There's not a plane on the field than can reach me and return to do anything if they could count on me that the job will be thorough. I don't want any wreckage found." She also told him "you must absolutely keep any of the men from doing any dangerous searching. I'm sorry to have to have it that way but it's better than having an aviation accident."

Friends said they believed Mrs. Stanton was grief-stricken over the death of her husband, Gordon M. Stanton, who lost his life in an automobile accident here less than two weeks ago. They had been married less than a year.

Soviet Plane In Crash, 14 Killed

Moscow, Nov. 23 (AP).—A dispatch from Kharkov said the newly-constructed airplane K-7, said to be the largest airplane for overland flying in the world, crashed there yesterday killing 14 persons.

The dead were reported to include the chief pilot and mechanic and several Kharkov aviation officials, but beyond these bare facts no details were given out.

The government commission was appointed immediately to investigate the cause of the crash and establish responsibility for it.

The construction of the great Soviet airplane was announced last summer.

Complete specifications were not disclosed, but it was said at the time to be a Duraluminum monoplane designed to carry 70 passengers and a crew of six men.

SELECT SECOND JUROR

TO HEAR SCARNICI TRIAL

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 22 (AP).—A second juror to hear the murder case against Leonard Scarnici and two other New York hoodlums was chosen today after 25 veniremen had been examined. He was Michael Greelish of Troy. The trial began yesterday when both defense and prosecution agreed on Patrick J. O'Brien.

Scarnici, Anthony Reino and Charles Shore are accused of slaying a Rensselaer detective, James A. Stevens during a bank holdup.

Thirteen jurors are to be chosen. One is an auxiliary juror, to serve only if one of the regular jurors becomes ill or is otherwise unable to continue. Both state and defense can use 33 challenges. In examining 25 prospective jurors, the prosecution used two challenges and the defense eight.

Noted Educator Dead.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 22 (AP).—George P. Lee, 49, head of the personnel department and instructor in English in the Niagara Falls High School and formerly superintendent of Fall evening schools in charge of Americanization and citizenship work, died of a heart attack last night. He was a graduate of Dartmouth, 1909, and before coming here 18 years ago had spent several years in Porto Rico where he was connected with public schools. He was recognized as an authority on Americanization and citizenship matters.

Baptist World Alliance.

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—The Baptist World Alliance announced today that it would hold its 1934 meeting in Berlin, Germany, August 4 to 10. Tentative plans to meet next year in Switzerland because of "upheaval" in Germany were abandoned when the executive committee decided that no reason now existed to prevent carrying out the original plan for meeting in Berlin.

Parley Postponed

Geneva, Nov. 22 (AP).—The steering committee of the Disarmament Conference voted today to suspend the parley until January. In the meantime international diplomacy is to be given full play in its efforts to save the Disarmament Conference from oblivion and to bring Germany, which withdrew last month from the negotiations, back into the conversations.

Authority Will Show Proper Tree Pruning

Pomologist from State Agricultural College Will Give Six Demonstrations in County in Three Days—Of Great Interest to Fruit Growers.

Prof. Joseph Oakamp, pomologist from the State Agricultural College at Ithaca will be in Ulster county for three days this week beginning Thursday, November 23. While here he will demonstrate how to properly prune our various species of fruit trees at six demonstration meetings.

The committees of the Ulster County Farm Bureau have arranged the following schedule of meetings for the benefit of its membership: Highland, Thursday, November 23, at 9:30 a. m. at N. W. Williams' orchards; Ulster Park, Thursday, November 23, at 1:30 p. m. at Leslie Herring's home orchard; Clintondale, Friday, November 24, at 9:30 a. m. at M. C. Hurd's orchards; Marlborough, Friday, November 24, at 1:30 p. m. at Barrett Wygant's orchards; Milton, Saturday, November 25, at 9:30 a. m. at J. Perry Wadley's orchards; Wallkill, Saturday, November 25, at 1:30 p. m. at Alfred Bedell's orchards.

Fruit growers in the Hudson valley spend considerable time every fall and winter pruning their apple, pear and peach trees. Without an exception they all realize the benefits of pruning these species of fruit trees in order to produce high quality fruit. It is a costly operation, when one considers the time they spend, however it is an essential one from the standpoint of disease and insect control.

Due to the above two reasons, fruit growers from all parts of this county generally turn out in large numbers to attend these important meetings. Many a grower claims that the benefit he has received at one of these meetings in the past has meant several times the cost of his Farm Bureau membership fee.

Every fruit grower interested in pruning fruit trees is cordially invited to attend one or more of these demonstrations at the places designated above.

Rural Mailmen Held Meeting

The Hudson Valley Rural Letter Carriers held a very enthusiastic meeting Sunday afternoon last in the supreme court chambers in the Dutchess county court house at Poughkeepsie, where they were privileged to listen to a stirring address by their national president, W. G. Armstrong, of Niles, Michigan.

There were 120 carriers and friends present from the different counties bordering along both sides of the Hudson river. Ulster county was represented by 14 carriers; Orange, 4; Sullivan, 5; Columbia, 11; Putnam, 1; Rockland, 8; Dutchess, 16; Greene, 11; Saratoga, 2; Schoharie, 4; Washington, 3; Rensselaer, 6; Albany, 2; Connecticut State, 13; and one from Massachusetts.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 by the president of the Dutchess County Branch, Harold Briggs, of Staatsburg, who requested all county officers of the various counties represented to come to the platform. After a few brief remarks by the presiding officer, he called upon E. J. Ritch, president of Ulster County Branch, to present the subject of gas tax. Mr. Ritch told those present what steps were being taken along this line and urged everyone present to cooperate during the coming winter. Short addresses were also made by Mr. Sinsabaugh, president of Orange county, Mr. Corwin, of Highland, and Mr. Ayers, president of Rockland county.

Resolutions Adopted By Local Engineers

Ulster County Chapter of New York State Society of Professional Engineers Recommended Employment of Licensed Professional Engineers for Supervision of Public Works Projects.

The Ulster County Chapter of the New York State Society of Professional Engineers at a recent meeting took action recommending the employment of licensed professional engineers for supervision of public works projects. They also discussed at some length the proposed NRA code for professional engineers in the construction industry.

The matter of priorities of various relief projects and other public works, which have been considered by the Taxpayers' Association, was taken up. It was decided to cooperate with that body in general suggestions as to which ones should be developed first and to insure the most economy commensurate with their urgency.

The chapter passed the following resolutions defining the attitude of the engineers as to supervision of public works projects:

Whereas this organization is concerned with the public welfare of the people of New York state particularly as affected by the safety of design and economy of construction of public works projects, and

Whereas the requirements of the state board of examiners for the licensing of engineering applicants are adequate to insure the competence of licensed professional engineers to design, construct and maintain such projects; and

Whereas the employment of licensed professional engineers clothed with adequate power and responsibility will result in greater safety and economy of such projects to the advantage of the people of this county.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved: That this society respectfully recommend to the officials of Ulster county and the city of Kingston, that when making new appointments such of officials initiate, endorse, approve and confirm the designation of licensed professional engineers with full power and responsibility to supervise the planning, construction and maintenance of all public projects, whenever undertaken, and

Be It Further Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be submitted to the following officials:

The present and incoming clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Ulster county.

The present and incoming Board of Public Works of the city of Kingston.

The present and incoming Work Relief boards of the city of Kingston.

The Board of Water Supply of the city of Kingston.

The Hon. Eugene B. Carey, mayor of the city of Kingston.

The Hon. Harry B. Walker, mayor-elect of the city of Kingston.

The Hon. Conrad J. Heiselman, alderman-at-large.

NEWSMEN'S NEWSPAPER

PRINTS FIRST EDITION

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—The Guild Reporter, a one-page newspaper published by the newly-formed Newspaper Guild of New York "in the interest of newspaper editorial employees throughout the nation," made its first appearance today.

The publication announces a convention for organization of an American newspaper guild in Washington, D. C., on December 15.

An editorial, signed by Allen Raymond, president of the New York Guild, concludes:

"In any real fight for a greater freedom of the press, the American newspaper publisher will find his editorial employees absolutely and unanimously with him. They will not, I think, string along in any sham battle, on an issue that is partly fraudulent."

An article by J. Eddy, secretary of the New York group, says:

"As an organization we shall be what we are as individuals—reporter, editor, collector of facts; in short, news gatherers."

"Because of our vital place in society, our present task of organization is smoother. It is not comparable with that of a labor union, where organization is often a prelude to a strike and where a strike may be called for the very purpose of completing organization. We, as news gatherers, as the journeymen of public opinion, can rely completely on the intelligent use of facts."

After all this fuss about gold, it's going to be a joke on civilization when some chemist starts manufacturing tons from lead or copper.

TOP

Mount the above diagram on a thick blotter. Place a pile of nine or ten coins on the right. The diagram and the coins should both be about sixteen inches from the edge of the table at which you are sitting. With your right hand pick up the coins one at a time and drop them into the black dots on the diagram. You must drop each coin into the dot. Average time is twenty-eight seconds.

Rich Hagenbacker (Camel smoker), champion billiard player, completed the test in seventeen seconds.

Plenty of Greenbacks—Also Entire Dresses

A LADY'S DRESS

New York—Among the blessings to recent and to give thanks for is the privilege of wearing smart wool or heavy crepe dresses anywhere and everywhere. A few reservations, of course, for the formal. The rank and file of women can feel comfortable in a dress of the type shown.

As usual, Paris talks of and shows black, but our recovery program includes gladdening the eye as well as the purse, with gold, and with warm colors. Greenbacks are everywhere; in any assemblage of well dressed women, day or night, there is a full quota of green, usually the darker, richer shades which the late Victorians termed olive. It's the yellowish greens that are best liked and most generally flattering, but with turquoise, the gem and the color, being talked of as a winning color, there is of course a chance for the blue greens and greener blues.

Paris has played up turquoise. Perhaps it's all a part of the reborn popularity of buxom blondes, for they were the type which could be counted on to bedeck themselves with turquoise. Whether we can lay their return to Mae West, whose soft shoulders bear such a responsibility already, is a question. Anyway, wear turquoise and wear it as a note of contrast on green, black or pancy—it is really a most attractive color accent.

The popularity of fur-trimmed dresses hardly catches us unawares. We have talked of them repeatedly, and here they are. It's the flat furs, like galeak, barunduki and so on, that are most appropriate under a coat, and incidentally the coat, often as not, may have fur trimming. Don't forget to order or buy yourself a hat of fur to match the green. The soft, pliable furs are handled, by clever milliners, like fabrics, made in berets, tricorns and even bonnets.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

For lingerie Alencons laces still lead and are given a new aspect by embroidering the motifs with over-cast stitch. Alencons is wanted this season in white.

A dress developed in bronze green suede crepe introduces black galeak at the neckline and side closing of the bodice, the line of the fur continued in a seam of the skirt.

Blouses With Coolie and Cowl Necklines

At the left Chinese blue in taffeta makes a blouse embodying many Chinese details. The other blouse is in copper and sponsors pleated capelette; repeated in the hem.

Thinking of Taking the Veil?

In adopting the off-face lines women will find the veil a flattering substitute for the brim which shadows the eyes. With faces out "in the open" again, the veil will be considered both by many young women and old as almost a necessity.

With the predicted acceptance of the off-face silhouette, the veil will be more important than ever. Marcelle Lely in her models of this type stretches a veil across the forehead snugly veiling its bareness. Suzy White shows some veils falling over the back of the hat instead of the front, an idea which Talbot also used in evening types.

Flashes of Life

Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)
Many, many, says Judge.
Philadelphia—Childhood's mystic language, "Pig Latin," had Judge Theodore Rosen stamped but an interpreter saved the day. Mrs. Agnes Derlin, suing her husband for support, presented a letter in the cryptic code which she said was written by another woman. It was signed "Orelia Omefra Ourya Onkerman." The judge had to have help to learn this means "Love from your mother."

Cooks Preferred.
Madison, Wis.—Most University of Wisconsin students prefer a good cook to a prom queen for a life companion, a survey by the student newspaper recently disclosed. There was one youth, however, whose ideal was "one who would be willing to sit up six nights of the week and hope I'll come around the seventh."

Snakes.
Chicago—After entertaining thousands of Century of Progress visitors with poisonous snakes, Hadji Mohamed, 93, returned to his native Tunisia, Africa, only to be fatally bitten by one of the reptiles.

Word of his death was received by Joseph Guex, who said Mohamed failed to give his snakes time to recover their calm after the sea voyage.

Buffalo Bill
Pittsburgh—That last round-up conducted by Allegheny county was a costly proceeding, the county commissioners have learned. To subdue a dozen buffalo that roam the county parks—the animals had to be inoculated—county police used 10 tear gas bombs at $10 each. The bill for the Buffalo roundup came in yesterday.

Reasons Enough.
Lincoln, Neb.—A. Emstauffer of Lincoln thinks there's a particular reason why the University of Nebraska football team has won six games and lost only one contest—that it is to Pittsburgh.

With a Parsons in the backfield, a Bishop in the line, and a Bible as coach, he thinks the Cornhuskers have a good chance to win the conference with University of Iowa here Saturday. Then too, he points out, "we have justice on our side." Justice being a reserve lineman.

Lawrence, Kas.—A few weeks ago at the University of Kansas, the order was "strike, band." And the band did "strike." The musicians refused to play until certain requests were met including academic credit for their work. Yesterday the faculty agreed. Today's order read:

May Reserve Tickets For Pinafore Now

Tickets for Pinafore, the musical comedy to be given by the Musical and Athletic Association of the high school, may now be reserved in the high school corridor any time between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. tomorrow or Friday.

Pinafore, one of the best known of the famous Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedies, has been presented in recent years by prominent musical organizations in leading high schools and colleges throughout the country and it is believed that under the direction of the combined efforts of Miss Tarrant and Mr. Stine of the high school faculty this production will be one of the most outstanding performances produced in the high school in the past few years.

The setting of Pinafore is laid on toward the ship H. M. S. Pinafore, which is at anchor in the harbor of Portsmouth. The story concerns mainly the love of the captain's daughter, Josephine, for a topman, Ralph Raeburn. However, Josephine's hand has already been promised to Sir Joseph Porter, a British cabinet minister, who appears on board with his sisters and his cousins and his aunts. To claim Josephine's hand, Raeburn must first win a contest with her father, a bumblebee who comes on board to sell her wares, falls in love with Captain Corcoran. Finally, after many "Oh! Horrors" Buttercup discloses a dark secret which straightens matters out.

Howe About:

Good Writing
Hypocrisy
Conservatives

By ED HOWE

THE reviewers of books mention one lately appearing, and written by an old man, who begins by saying: "I have read a great deal, and found books so bad I am encouraged to attempt one myself. What are the uses of writing to which I refer? Usually too great length, lack of clearness, and of honesty. (This last fault is so general it is said there has never yet been printed an honest book.) I have worked a long time at this writing, and now that it is complete, I find it has the faults of those to which I have objected; it is at least no better than the average, and possibly not so good. So I have concluded the good writing long demanded is no more likely to become the rule than good behavior, good looks, good times, good sense, or good health. I have rewritten my book three times, having heard that genius is no more than taking great pains, but now almost believe the last draft worse than the first."

Most complaints about good principles begin with charges of hypocrisy against those who profess to practice them. Start any man trading, and he will soon be declaring he is the only candid, honest man willing and able to look the facts in the face, and propose an intelligent remedy.

That is the way people have always been: God has been unable to do anything with ourselves. . . . Why not try a universal suicide pact? That might bring about the flow of blood so long expected of rioters. . . .

Ten members of a vigilance committee once caught a horse thief, but all hated to hang him. Finally they went into a saloon to drink and talk it over. When all were drunk, including the prisoner, members of the committee urged him to shoot himself. They said they had families, and didn't care to have blood on their hands to think about for years. But the prisoner replied that while he wished to be a good fellow, and reasonable, he could not go that far. The men finally rode away, still arguing with the prisoner. I did not hear how it finally came out, but probably the prisoner continued to argue he didn't steal the horse, was generally a better man than those objecting to him, and that the request to shoot himself was unreasonable.

During the present big storm, one of the sayings heard most frequently is that conservative thought has been given up.

It will return; that is one thing we may depend upon. There was never a safe storekeeper, mechanic, father, banker, husband, citizen, farmer, until he had somewhat learned the truths of conservatism; practice of its rules decides the degree of his promotion or failure. Conservatism is not a doctrine, but a practice nature enforces.

Nature is conservative; its worst storms blow themselves out. Floods and plagues have destroyed millions, but soon the sun shines peacefully again on greater numbers who have somehow found shelter.

Nothing is permanently radical; always conservatism wins as a natural law we cannot escape.

Most people are slouchy, and do not like it when neat persons suggest that they clean up their houses, yards, cut the weeds in fence corners, or remove the spots on their clothes.

Silvius says in his memoirs that the principal trouble he had with his wives was in dividing money he never had. Women, he explains, rarely know how difficult it is for men to make money, and thus always believe their husbands have more than they acknowledge. Daughters have the same difficulty with fathers, and Silvius expresses thankfulness he had none. Silvius was prominent in old Rome as soldier and statesman, but nothing in his book or life indicates he was a money-maker. Few men have the gift, but women believe every man has or should have it.

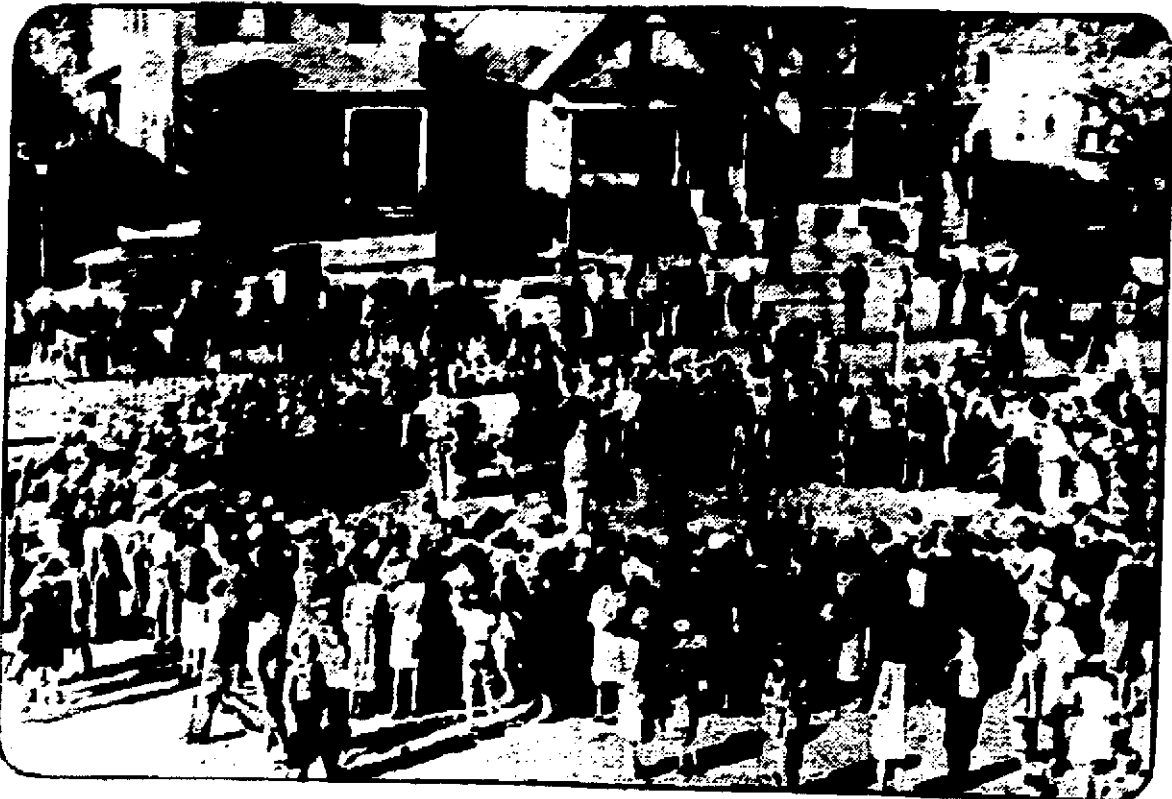

A man attacks me because I do not like poetry. He might as well attack me because I am old. Our worst modern human troubles date back to poetry; to refusal of early men to recognize material facts, and make the best of them. Every extreme radical either writes poetry, or likes its visionary expressions. The best critics are agreed that poetry is not understandable; that it means nothing. And the first duty of every man is to "know where he is at."

Are officials of the law doing as well in their contests with outlaws as can be reasonably expected? Near my town twelve officers with machine guns lately surrounded a house in which were only two outlaws handicapped by having their women with them. After considerable firing, the outlaws got away, wounding three of their assailants. Here were thirteen officers pitted against two law violators. The bandits had no advantage except courage; they did not even have the new steel shields with which the officers had lately been supplied by the county. . . . Thirteen officers to two bandits, and the bandits won. It really seems fresh discouragement for law as administered by politics.

Chicago Children See Their First Cow

INQUIRY brought out the fact that most of the children in the Westworth school in Chicago never had seen a cow. So Dr. Lloyd Buckhardt of the University of Illinois escorted a real live cow and her calf to the school yard and the children learned about the source of the milk they drink. Some of them were skeptical and were given the chance of milking the cow themselves, whereupon all their doubts vanished.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT IN NORMAL SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

New Paltz, Nov. 22.—Magnanimi New York Chamber Symphony children's concert was given in the Normal School auditorium Monday afternoon, November 20. The program was as follows:

(a)—minuet composed at the age of four; (b)—oboe and bassoon; (c)—minuet composed at the age of six; (d)—violin and cello; (e)—minuet from "Don Giovanni." (a)—"A Village Festival." Foster. Mr. Magnanimi is a former Pulitzer prize winner in music and among the most interesting of younger American composers. He has won continued praise from the New York critics for his ability as a program maker. He adds to his program of older music that which is modern and novel. To the playing of his 20 men, the conductor invariably adds his own delightful program notes in the form of oral comment. This concert was attended by the surrounding rural schools, the training school and high school pupils.

Basketball Call Brings Out 125 For High School Varsity

The call for basketball candidates issued a few days ago brought about 125 boys to Kingston High School gym in basketball togs, ready to defend the banner of the Maroon and White in basketball. Practicing under the personal direction of Assistant Coach Dick Whiston were candidates of all shapes and sizes, some tall, some short, lean and stout, all hoping for a place on the varsity.

It is expected that a cut will be made in the next few days that will decrease the group to about half of its present number. Other cuts will follow until the squad is reduced to the right number of players.

Among those who attended the first practice session were Captain Johnny Zech, Don Moore and Jim O'Reilly, all regulars of last year's team and who are expected to fill varsity shoes this year.

After the Kingston-Newburgh football game on Thanksgiving, practices are expected to get on in earnest under Coach Kline and Whiston. After the football season is over and the football men have hung over their cleats and helmets for another year, it is expected that "Troy" DeBrosky, "Zip" Zecher, "Jack" Callum, Art McElroy, Harold Ferguson, "Cowboy" Evers and Ed Ferguson, all of football fame, will don basketball togs to uphold the Kingston banner in DUSO circles.

Bruck All Stars Open Season At B. W. S. Tonight

In the Stone Ridge lineup are such stars as Ben Chilson, Bob Cullum, Mike Knoll, Herb Van Deusen, "Woody" Wood and Bruck himself. Liberty will have the Fluke brothers, Harkov and several other outstanding Sullivan county basketballers.

There will be a preliminary basketball game between the Stone Ridge Juniors and Accord Five. This game is scheduled for 7:30, the feature at 8:30 and dancing is to follow the contests.

SPORT SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

"We have heard a lot about the wonderful ball-carriers on southern teams this year, but aren't there some good ones elsewhere worth considering for All-American recognition?" asks a bystander from Indiana who has the all-around excellence of the Purdue backfield in mind.

"If there is a better combination in the country than Duane Purvis, Paul Pardonner and Jim Carter, the Purdue ace," he goes on to say, "I would appreciate some information on the subject. Purvis is everything; that an All-American man should be. Carter is a rare broken field runner and Pardonner is a kicking specialist as well as a fine field general."

Purvis undoubtedly belongs in a class with the best backs currently at large on any college gridiron. So does George Henry Sauer of Nebraska. Herman Everhardus of Michigan, George (Icehouse) Wilson of St. Mary's, Mike Sebastian of Pittsburgh, Bob Lassiter of Yale, Cy Grant of Georgia, Irvine Warburton of Southern California, Jack Buckler of West Point, Ed Danowski of Fordham, Dick Crayne of Iowa, and P. Lund of Minnesota.

Speaking of southern backs, one of our scouts suggests that the Vanderbilt sophomore quarterback, Rand Dixon, has about as much all-around class as any ball-handler in Dixie. Including Feathers of Tennessee, J. Huber of Auburn, and Bryan of Tulane, Michael of Louisiana State and a flock of others.

Tabbing the lineemen. The all-star nominations for this year's All-American line have not been nearly so conspicuous as usual. It's about time for some close scrutiny.

Our southern experts agree that Duke's Freddie Crawford is as much tackle as any All-American outfit needs. He is compared to Fred Singler, great Alabama lineman of a few years ago who has had a hand in developing Crawford as an assistant to Wallace Wade at Duke.

Carl Jorgensen of St. Mary's must have looked like the whole side of a line to Fordham in the battle at the Polo Grounds, especially when the Rams were trying unsuccessfully to break through on the goal line. The big Gael tackle appeared to have three or four Fordham players bundled up in his arms at one time.

Jack Torrance of Louisiana State, the national intercollegiate shotput champion, has been moving his 350-pound frame effectively in the tackle position. Charles Bernard of Michigan has already achieved high praise as a center. Joe Gellius of Ohio State and Harvey Jablonsky, Army's husky captain, have given two of the best performances at guard so far. On the ends, Mencko of Northwestern, Larson of Minnesota, Petokey of Michigan, the Carnahan brothers of St. Mary's and Borden of Fordham have attracted much attention.

Davidson Delivers. The change of athletic administration at West Point, far from being accompanied by any let-down in the excellence of Army's football forces, has been marked by performances so far measuring up to the best standards of the team coached by Alf Jones and Ralph Sasse in recent years. There need be no fears over the ability of the "freshman" coach, Lieut. Gar Davidson, whose youthful gray hairs seem to have inspired confidence.

FRANK TABORSKI EQUALS TWO SHORT GAME RECORDS

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 22 (P).—Unofficially equaling two short game records, Frank Taborski, former pocket billiard champion, had issued his duty today to outstrip in the world's championship tourney.

The "Grey Fox" set Paul Lane of Chicago down twice last night in his exhibition. Taborski equalled the two-time record in their first match when he ran 90 after marking up 35 in the first frame. Lane made only 34 points in two trips to the table.

The former titleholder ran 134 in the first frame of the second match scheduled for 125 points to tie the second record.

Ralph Greenleaf, present champion, is the holder of the official record for shortest game, having run 126 in championship play.

drive to bring out the talents of one of the East's best backfield combinations—Johnson, Buckler, Brown and Stancok.

No one has outcharged Illinois the way Army did at Cleveland. The same set of forwards that swarmed over Michigan and nearly upset the Weirwires was absolutely helpless against the Cadet line.

Want Armory Use for Basketball League

Tuesday evening Mr. Kantrowitz, North Front street, who is deeply interested in athletics, appeared before the common council and asked for the use of the old armory for two nights a week for a basketball league. He said that there were seven teams ready to start playing as soon as the armory could be obtained. This was not a commercial project and no admission would be charged. It was simply a move to keep boys of between 15 and 17 years of age interested in basketball and off the streets. Poughkeepsie and Newburgh had similar leagues.

After some discussion among the aldermen as to where money would be raised to heat and light the armory as the council has no appropriation for that purpose it was voted to allow the boys the use of the building.

Alderman Zucca also called attention to the fact that the high school desired the use of the armory during afternoons after school hours. They also were granted the use of the building.

Other matters taken up will be found elsewhere.

BILLIARDS

Troy's Luckies Oppose Tannersville Thursday

Jack Troy's Luckies will start their season at White Eagle Hall, Delaware avenue, Thursday night, meeting the Tannersville Big Five in the feature of a basketball program and dance, which is expected to draw a capacity crowd to the downtown auditorium.

Opening the evening's entertainment at 7:30 o'clock will be a game between the Fuller Girls of Kingston and the Tannersville Girls. The feature will start between 8:30 and 9 o'clock and after this music for dancing will be furnished by Jack Cashin's Nighthawks, featuring Jerry Lehr on the trumpet.

In picking the Tannersville Big Five for his team in its opening tilt, Troy chose no setup. The mountaineers have been playing first rate basketball for several years and are expected to give the Luckies a battle packed with hard fighting and plenty of thrills.

Troy will have ready for action in defense of his banner none other than Mickey Husta, former state league star, and several college, high school and semi-pro luminaries, including Bob Callum of Kingston High School and St. Michael's College, Herb Van Deusen, former high school varsity star, Jack Kelly, Pete Schilling, Phil Kelly, Don Kelly and Vince Van Bramer.

In the lineup named, Troy believes that he has some of the best cage talent hereabouts and expects the Luckies to go a long way toward giving other first rate quintets a race for the semi-pro championship of Ulster county this winter.

Tannersville has on its team the same fighting courtiers that represented last year in Glencon, Haines, Dougherty, Bartley, McTague and Leehive.

The Tannersville Girls, opponents of Fullers, have lost only one game in four years, meaning that the Kingston lassies should have a hard time in the preliminary.

BAIRN RUTH GIVES DOG TO TWO CRIPPLED BOYS

Baltimore, Nov. 22. (P).—This story is about two crippled boys, a dog, and Baltimore's most famous orphan, Babe Ruth.

Last week the local newspapers carried a story about Jack McCann, 12, and Stanley Hardesty, 9. They wanted a dog.

They are patients at the James Lawrence Kernan Hospital for Crippled Children, and the doctors have prescribed plenty of exercise for them.

Each day the doctors send them on long walks, tramping over the fields near the suburban hospital. It is part of their cure.

It had seemed to the boys that these walks would be more enjoyable if they had a dog, so they appealed to the newspapers.

The Bambino was told about it, and he came through in great style. Jack and Stanley now have a three months old collie, white with a brown spot on its forehead.

"And it's from Babe Ruth," they exclaim in awed tones.

Maureen O'Sullivan
Develops Peritonitis
Of Snuff May Form
Index of Dollar Value

Hollywood, Nov. 22 (AP)—Develop- ment of peritonitis after an operation for acute appendicitis caused concern today for the recovery of Maureen O'Sullivan, Irish motion picture actress.

So critical was Miss O'Sullivan's condition Dr. W. E. Branch sent to the University of California Medical School at San Francisco for serum with which he planned to combat her illness.

Miss O'Sullivan, who came to Hol- lywood several years ago when she was "discovered" in Dublin by Frank Borzage, film director, was operated on Monday after being taken ill at her home.

They are among the 784 articles studied by the labor department in fixing the index number of wholesale commodity prices whose fluctuations, some economists urge, should govern the dollar's metal base.

If prices rose, as shown by the index, the gold or other metallic back- ing of the dollar would be reduced, and if they fell it would be increased.

The labor department's bureau of statistics has been calculating the index figure for years. It is de- signed to give the exact average of all wholesale prices as compared with the average for 1926. Each item included in the calculation is weighted according to its importance in the nation's market.

Greatest weight is, therefore, given to foods, clothing and building materials, the necessities for which most of the national income is used.

The 784 commodities are divided into ten classifications, which follow together with the percentage of weight given them in making the in- dex number calculation:

Farm products 17.20; foods 19.44; textiles 19.44; metals and metal products 14.72; building materials 6.34; chemicals and drugs 1.62; miscellaneous 9.23.

Under farm products, all major commodities are used, including bar- ley, corn, oats, rye, wheat, cattle, eggs, sheep, poultry, beans, cotton, fruits, hay, hops, milk, peanuts, seeds, tobacco, vegetables and wool.

Prices of several classifications of many of these products are included. For instance, six different wheat grades are calculated. The vege- tables are onions and potatoes; the fruits are lemons and oranges.

Some items count heavily in the final computation. Hogs are given a weight of 2.32 per cent, while onions count only .03 of one per cent.

The biggest weight given any single item out of the 784 commodities is 4.37 for the average price of all passenger automobiles.

In contrast, castor oil, ground bones and pretzels count only .01 of one per cent; castets .1 of one per cent; and snuff .06 of one per cent.

Door knobs are given a weight of .06 of one per cent; wagon once the basis of American transportation, .02 of one per cent; and windmills so lit- tle that they are merely listed as "less than .01 per cent."

ZENA, Nov. 22.—Services at the Reformed Church were held last Sunday with splendid attendance both at Sunday School and regular services. Scripture reading and prayer were given by the Rev. Mr. Steketee from Kingston, and a sermon by Mr. Heidenreich, whose topic was "Pilot of Galilee."

The Christian Endeavor Society held its regular meeting Sunday evening with Elmer H. Hines as leader, and his topic was "Avoiding Sin and Pretense." Mr. Heidenreich fol- lowed with a discussion and ques- tions on the "Bible." It was a most interesting meeting. Next Sunday Helen Long will lead the meeting and her topic will be "What We Have to Thank God For."

Services next Sunday, November 26, There will be no Sunday School and services will be in the afternoon at 2:30, when the Rev. Dr. Frank B. Seeley will be in charge and his ser- mon will be on the "Lionary work. All are most cordially invited to attend. A special invitation is also extend- ed to everyone to a special 30-min- ute worship service to be held in the Little Church on the Hill when John Heidenreich will be here. There will also be special music.

Indianapolis, Nov. 22 (AP)—Al C. Feeney, Indiana's three-in-one fire marshal, state police chief and ath- letic commissioner, pondered today on the problem of which of his pow- ers he should invoke in dealing with the case of Chief Chewchul, heavy- weight wrestler.

The Chief, billed as being from Ardmore, Okla., set the fans afire, disturbed their peace of mind and committed a breach of athletic etiquette in a wrestling match last night. His opponent was "Irish" Pat O'Shocker of Salt Lake City, re- cent favorite of the Detroit society, grand dame who were intrigued by his drawing room demonstrations of the grappling art.

The Chief took the first fall but lost the second. Then he flopped the curly headed O'Shocker, who, wrestling his bare legs and, recalcitrating toward the Indian's rights.

Referee Here Clark backed the Chief into a corner to investigate. While the fans howled, he pulled on the Chief's tights, leaving him with not much more covering than a fan- tasy. From the tights Clark ex- tracted two pieces of sandpaper. They were studied with carpet tacks.

He awarded the third and de- ciding fall to the aggrieved Mr. O'Shocker.

Mrs. Roosevelt Visits Her Homestead Project
Fairmont, W. Va., Nov. 22 (AP)— Crowding a lot of work into a brief visit, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt sped into West Virginia today on a tour of inspection of her homestead project for the rehabilitation of un- employed coal miners and their fam- ilies.

She waved a cheery "good morn- ing" to the crowd of 250 gathered at the station as she alighted from a train on which she made the over- night trip from Washington.

A motor caravan awaited her, speeding the First Lady northeast- ward through Morgantown to Reeds- ville and Arthursdale, the homestead site near the Pennsylvania-West Vir- ginia line.

There half a hundred former min- ers and a company of civilian conser- vation corps youth are already doing the preliminary work of getting the 1,000-acre government project under- way in a "back-to-the-soil" experi- ment.

Mrs. Roosevelt was accompanied by Colonel Louis McHenry Howe, the President's secretary.

Prison Under Heavy
Guard, Riot Feared

Philadelphia, Nov. 22 (AP)—Embil- lered over their imminent segrega- tion in a "prison within a prison," a band of 75 recalcitrant convicts are blamed for the most destructive riot in the history of the century-old Eastern State Penitentiary.

Running wild during a recreation period in the penitentiary yard yes- terday, the enraged convicts smashed into and fired prison buildings and destroyed valuable machinery.

They wrecked and set ablaze the weaving shop and the dye shop and wreaked destruction in part of the kitchen and the chaplain's quarters.

For two hours they had the peni- tentiary in an uproar—the fourth re- volt behind its grim walls within the last six weeks.

Then the guards, reinforced by several hundred city policemen, de- tectives, state troopers and state highway patrolmen forced them into cells with the aid of streams from fire hose and shot fired from riot guns but not aimed directly at the prisoners.

Strong details of extra guards were kept on duty today to quell pos- sible new outbreaks.

Unrest which seethed through the prison all yesterday was believed to have resulted from information reaching the prisoners by "grape- vine" that Warden Herbert Smith in- tended to segregate the group of 75 responsible for the other demonstra- tions in a sort of "Devil's Island," a prison to be created within the penitentiary.

Reports that there had been blood shed in the latest revolt were denied by Smith.

After being subdued, the rioters were searched in their cells. A few knives and several improvised clubs were found.

Made Money Although He Lost Movie Chain
Washington, Nov. 22 (AP)—How the price paid by General Theatres Equipment, Inc., to William Fox for his crumbling movie empire finally sent the holding company into re- ceivership despite millions poured in- to it by the Chase National Bank and the public was developing today be- fore Senate investigators.

The stock market committee held evidence that huge stock and bond flotations which brought in about $60,000,000 failed to save the hold- ing company financed by Chase after G. T. E. had paid $15,000,000 and other considerations to Fox for con- trol of his financially hard pressed companies.

With noisy creditors on every hand, law suits pending by the score and obligations running almost up to $100,000,000 Fox not only got the $15,000,000 cash for his control, but agreement worth many millions more.

The agreement under which he sold out to G. T. E. before its col- lapse in February 1932, guaranteed him a yearly $500,000 salary for five years, agreed to pay him $3,000,000 for other salary claims, provided for payment of premiums on his $3,500,000 life insurance policies and gave him at least 10 per cent of profit from underwriting of Fox film sec- urities.

Miller Reaction is That McMe's
Anything Not Injurious to Coun- try's Best Interests—Says De- dicated Germany Has Given Up All Thought of Alsace-Lorraine.

Paris, Nov. 22 (AP)—A govern- ment spokesman said today that the French door to peace is wide open to Chancellor Hitler of Germany if he cares to enter carrying an olive branch.

This authoritative invitation was made as a comment on an interview with the German chief by Fernand De Brinon, a close friend of former Premier Edouard Daladier, published in the newspaper Le Matin.

The interview quoted Hitler as of- fering peace and security to France in return for equality for Germany.

Le Matin said Hitler visualized the greatest obstacle to accord between France and Germany as the question of the Saar territory, now held by France; the French government spokesman said, "the question is whether Chancellor Hitler will sub- mit to the supervision of the arma- ments we know he is building."

The spokesman rejected the idea of direct conversations between Pres- ident Albert Sarraut and Chancellor Hitler and Sarraut could clear the atmosphere, Germany has a clean- cut program which needs military force to execute and she rapidly is getting this force.

"If Hitler does not want Alsace- Lorraine (as Le Matin stated), why is it included in this program?"

"The newspaper interviewer did not ask the chancellor about arms supervision, but we are willing to learn the answer through diplomatic channels."

Small sections of the Chamber of Deputies and of the people, the spokesman added, are eager for direct dealings with Germany, but he pointed out that Le Matin's interview was intended to plow the ground for French overtures to Hitler.

The newspaper interview said Hitler asked equality for Germany, which he said could be realized "by stakes and details talked over."

To give security to France, the spokesman said he would "willingly do anything not involving dishonor or danger to my country."

"I am convinced," said Hitler, "that once the question of the Saar, which is German land—has been set- tled, there is nothing, absolutely nothing, which can oppose Germany to France."

"Alsace, Lorraine? I have said often enough that we definitely have renounced it to be able to think that I have been heard. But how many times must it be repeated that we desire neither to absorb what does not belong to us nor to force the love of those who do not love us?"

To the interviewer's suggestion that there was anxiety that even though settled, the disagreements might crop up again, Hitler replied: "I alone decide what is Germany's policy and when I give my word it is my habit to keep it."
